Complex of 7 bldgs. Land & bldgs. in 1977 owned by the Faulkner Hospital & wanted to sell. Arnold Arboretum, beside it, wanted to buy & tear down bldgs. for a parking lot & new entrance to the arboreteum.

Designated a Boston Landmark by Boston Landmarks Commission 5.18.77, although complete designation held off in hopes that compromise between Harvard & Faulkner could be arrived at, so that Arboretum could get parking it needed, but the Nervine Bldgs. saved for reuse.

Boston. Hospitals. Mass. General Hospital. Bulfinch Bldg

Architect Alexander Parris worked as executive for Bulfinch in the bldg. of Mass. General. & there is in existence a complete set of the plans & elevations signed not by Bulfinch but by Parris. This system of cooperation had many advantages. It meant that what one knew all of them knew, & there was between them all an eager spirit of joint endeavor admirably fitted to produce rapid and constructive changes.

"...new assemblage of copper and glass rises up from an existing brick base at Mass. General Hospital, providing a new face onto Storrow Drive. Its deep overhanging eaves provide an inviting entry and lobby for the patient floors of a blocky 1970s research building. HISTORY

Chartered 1855

In 1871 established in a house at 14 Burroughs place, off Hollis St., it had 14 beds.

Later the same year some prominent homeopathic doctors were tried & expelled from the Mass. Medical Society. The ensuing controversy aroused great interest, and a public fair held in aid of the hospital raised $80,000 for a new building. Work was begun on Harrison Ave site immediately. The cost of the additions in 1883 was met by generous contributions of citizens, & those made in 1891-2 by further subscriptions & $120,000 in state aid.

Boston of Today 1892, p.81

Hospitals. George Robert White Fund (history)

George Robert White died Jan. 27, 1922. By his will he gave his property of every nature to the City of Boston to be held as a permanent charitable trust fund, to be known as the Geo. Robt. White Fund- the net income to be used for creating works of public utility & beauty, for the use and enjoyment of the inhabitants of the City of Boston.

A series of health units were built throughout the city in the 1920's, and ~~in~~ a new White Fund Bldg. in the 1960's.
